FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WILLIAMS JUDGED SEVENTH ANNUAL SECURITIES DISPUTE TRIATHLON

An Initiative by The Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and The Hugh L. Carey Center for Dispute Resolution

New York, New York – October 17, 2015 –Veronica Williams, Managing Director at ACT Inc., served as a judge at the Seventh Annual Securities Dispute Triathlon. A FINRA Arbitrator, with more than 30 years delivering financial, operational and technical solutions to the financial services industry, Williams brings a wealth of expertise and insight into securities matters. Backed by a Kellogg MBA in Finance and Economics, and other globally recognized credentials, Ms. Williams has been an advisor to firms in telecommunications, computing and financial services.

I was honored to participate in this event to spur students' development, said Williams. I applaud FINRA, St. John's University and all participating universities for another great year supporting our future lawyers.

The Seventh Annual Securities Dispute Triathlon was held October 17th and 18th in New York City.

About The Securities Dispute Resolution Triathlon

The Securities Dispute Resolution Triathlon is a joint initiative of the Hugh L. Carey Center for Dispute Resolution and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Triathlon provides student teams from participating law schools an opportunity to demonstrate their advocacy skills in negotiation, mediation and arbitration of a securities dispute. FINRA neutrals serve as judges, mediators and arbitrators. The Sixth Annual Securities Dispute Resolution Triathlon will take place October 18 – 19, 2014, at the St. John's University School of Law, Manhattan Campus. For more information visit
