WILLIAMS JUDGES SIXTH ANNUAL SECURITIES DISPUTE TRIATHALON
An Initiative by The Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA)
and The Hugh L. Carey Center for Dispute Resolution

New York, New York – October 20, 2014 –Veronica Williams, Managing Director at ACT Inc., will serve as a judge at the Sixth Annual Securities Dispute Triathlon. A FINRA Arbitrator, and more than 30 years delivering financial, operational and technical solutions to the financial services industry, Williams rings a wealth of expertise and insight into securities matters. Backed by a Kellogg MBA in Finance and Economics, Ms. Williams has been an advisor to global firms in telecommunications, computing and financial services. Her most recent article, Transforming Ideas into Value, can be read at <http://The5Ps.com/Ideas-Into-Value.pdf>.

I welcome this opportunity to encourage students to courageously embrace integrity and support economic growth, said Williams. I applaud FINRA, St. John's University and all participating universities for another year of building and shaping the minds of our future leaders.

The Triathlon was held October 18th and 19th in New York City.

About The Securities Dispute Resolution Triathlon

The Securities Dispute Resolution Triathlon is a joint initiative of the Hugh L. Carey Center for Dispute Resolution and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Triathlon provides student teams from participating law schools an opportunity to demonstrate their advocacy skills in negotiation, mediation and arbitration of a securities dispute. FINRA neutrals serve as judges, mediators and arbitrators. The Sixth Annual Securities Dispute Resolution Triathlon took place October 18 – 19, 2014, at the St. John's University School of Law, Manhattan Campus.
